

HIGH VOLTAGE AWARENESS (M31)

$ 275 (GST Incl)

Course Description

High Voltage awareness M31A is a non-accredited course for non electrical and electrical personnel to understand the dangers and risks working around or near High Voltage installations, the controls required to avoid contact with energised conductors, and the simple steps that can be utilised.

Delivery

Both the theory and assessment are delivered online at an external self-pace.

Unit of Competency

This is a non-accredited course.

Entry Requirements

There are no pre-requisites.

Assessments

Students will complete an online theory assessment.

Outcomes

- Work with aerials.
- Work in substations.
- Understand the dangers of induced voltages.
- Understand the risk mitigation of High Voltage.
- Understand the dangers of high voltage.

Offers

We also offer HV Switching, HV Coordination, & HV Recipient.

