

Supervisor Training: (S1, S2, and S3)

Course Description

The supervisors course (also known as S1, S2, S3) is one of the best investments you could make in your career. The good news is you could have this qualification on your resume within a few days as you gain the knowledge from the units of competency.

Content Delivery

Both the theory and assessments are delivered online and self-paced, including a requirement of gathering a portfolio of evidence.

Access to a workplace is required with a supervisor/mentor holding the units or equivalent to assist you in undertaking the practical components.
